

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST 2024/27513

Dear requester,

Thank you for your recent request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Section 1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) places two duties on public authorities. Unless exemptions apply, the first duty at, Section 1(1) (a), is to confirm or deny whether the information specified in a request is held. The second duty at, Section 1 (1) (b), is to disclose information that has been confirmed as being held.

The information that you are seeking is in relation to the following:

REQUEST

Please provide statistics on the number of police and highway authority stops conducted in 2023 and 2024 to verify abnormal load movement order compliance.

If possible, could you also provide data on the outcomes of these stops, such as the number of vehicles found to be non-compliant?

RESPONSE

Our data recording including stops, encounters and documenting of non-compliant abnormal loads is held by an independent third-party software provider, approved by the college of policing named "FleetCheck".

More information relating to this can be found at: Fleetcheck Site as follows:

Fleet Management Software UK | Fleet Management System – FleetCheck

In 2024 alone, there have been more than 200 traffic offences dealt with. In order to retrieve the data, each record would need to be reviewed to establish if it was abnormal load related. It would take approximately ten minutes to review each individual record, which would equate to at least 32 hours of research.

Therefore, the following exception has been applied.

Section 12 – Excess Cost

The exemption applicable to the information you have requested for this question can be found at Section 12(1) of the Act and this refusal notice is issued under Section 17.

Section 12(1) “does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.”

In the case of a police force, the appropriate limit is set at £450, which is calculated at £25 per hour (i.e., 18 hours). Gwent Police would have to conduct a manual search to find and extract the information for this question. This would take more than 18 hours of staff time therefore we are unable to answer this question and the exemption is engaged.

We appreciate that you may be disappointed on this occasion that we are unable to provide the requested information. However, under Section 16 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, we have a duty to assist you in relation to refining your request, where we may be able to answer some of your questions.

Freedom of Information Act is a public disclosure regime, not a private regime. Any information disclosed under the Act is thereafter deemed to be in the public domain, and therefore freely available to the public and will be published on the Gwent Police website.

If, upon receiving a response to a freedom of information request, you are unhappy with the outcome, you may request an internal review. This should be made within 40 working days of the initial response.

Please direct any internal review requests to FOI@gwent.police.uk

You have the right to request an appeal from the Information Commissioners Office about your Freedom of Information request, if you are dissatisfied with your internal review response.
