

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST 2025/28808

Dear requester,

Thank you for your recent request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Section 1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) places two duties on public authorities. Unless exemptions apply, the first duty at, Section 1(1) (a), is to confirm or deny whether the information specified in a request is held. The second duty at, Section 1 (1) (b), is to disclose information that has been confirmed as being held.

The information that you are seeking is in relation to the following:

REQUEST

How many cases of catalytic converter theft were registered in your constituency each year between 2019 and 2024?

How many of these cases resulted in a conviction?

RESPONSE

To provide the data below a keyword search has been done on all crime summaries for the crime category theft from a motor vehicle based on the recorded dates 01/01/2019 to 31/12/2024.

The following keywords used were used: "Catalytic Converter". Please note if the keywords were not mentioned, they would not be highlighted and would not be shown in the data below.

Convictions are held by the Crown Prosecution Service and therefore would need to be directed to them.

Please note, every effort is made to ensure that the figures presented are accurate and complete.

Freedom of Information Act is a public disclosure regime, not a private regime. Any information disclosed under the Act is thereafter deemed to be in the public domain, and therefore freely available to the public and will be published on the Gwent Police website.

If, upon receiving a response to a freedom of information request, you are unhappy with the outcome, you may request an internal review. This should be made within 40 working days of the initial response.

Please direct any internal review requests to FOI@gwent.police.uk

You have the right to request an appeal from the Information Commissioners Office about your Freedom of Information request, if you are dissatisfied with your internal review response.
